

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

THURSDAY
February 24, 1916

THE NEWS OF THE DAY AND THE PEOPLE WHO APPEAR IN IT AS SET FORTH BY THE CAMERA

EVANGELIST WHO IS NOW BATTLING WITH SATAN
IN NORRISTOWN
Dr. William Edward Biedewolf in three characteristic poses photographed by an EVENING LEDGER camera man. He comes from Winona Lake, Ind., which is also the home of "Billy" Sunday.

Photo by Int. Film Service.
SOUTHERN SOCIETY GIRL ADOPTS PIG AS PET
Miss Antoinette Evans, of New Orleans, is the originator of the new fad. She appears here taking "Beautee" out for a walk on the streets.

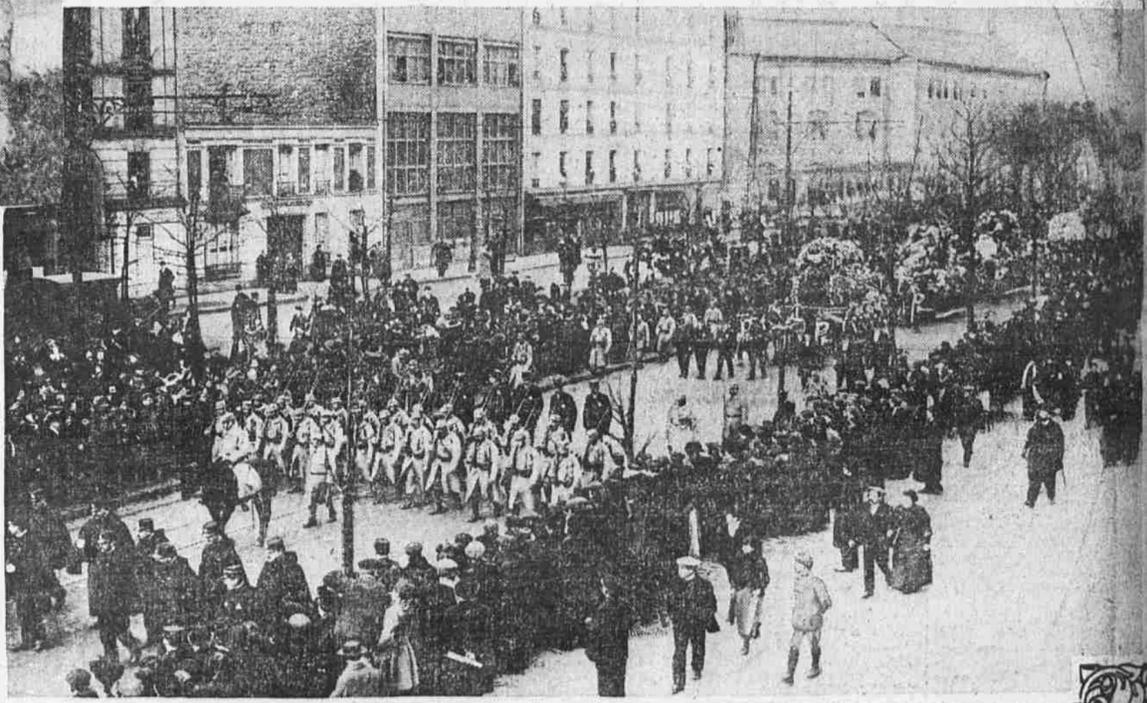

Photo by Medem.
VICTIMS OF LATEST ZEPPELIN RAID OVER PARIS RECEIVE MILITARY FUNERAL
The bodies of men, women and children who lost their lives when the 600-pound missiles of the aerial destroyers visited the capital recently were escorted to their graves by companies of soldiers. The picture shows the funeral cortege starting toward the cemetery after the church services had ended.

"HOW TO BRING UP A CHILD"
Young Miss Helen Owens caught in the midst of a romp with a neighbor at her home, 717 Anabury street.
The amateur photographs such as the above the pictorial section of the Evening Ledger offers special prizes. Contributions invited.

Photo by Medem.
FUGITIVE MONTENEGRIN KING AND FAMILY FIND REFUGE AT LYONS, FRANCE
Left to right: Princesses Vera, Xenie and Melotza (wife of Prince Danilo); M. Miouchikovitch, president of the Council, and Prince Danilo; in the centre, the King and Queen. They compose the second royal family which had sought hospitality in the republic.